GEOLOGY EXPERT TO LECTURE AT UM

MISSOULA --

Albert W. Bally, president of the Geological Society of America, will give three lectures at the University of Montana May 9-10.

Bally, who is also a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, will discuss "Folded Belts and Reflection Seismology" at noon May 9 in Room 304 of UM's Science Complex. At 4:10 p.m. he will lecture on the "Structure of the Apennines" in Room 131 of the Science Complex.

On May 10, Bally will talk about "Geology of Tibet and Central China" at 7:30 p.m. in Room 131 of the Science Complex.

Bally is an expert in petroleum geology, structural geology, tectonics and regional geology.

All lectures are free and open to the public.
